

SPARK LB

INTRO D7 D7 Em Em

VERSE 1

D7 Em
Pottery and plaster and some pools of paint
D7 Em
A community of masters just one block away
G A
Saved, my summer days in the company of actors
G A D7
Singing from the rafters, "Swing your partner and promenade!"

CHORUS

Bm Em A D7
But tonight I leave my art for the alley, street, and park
Bm Em A
Where the Long Beach faces spark some inspiration

VERSE 2

D7 Em
We got down out in the public space in the name of pleasure
D7 Em
Paintings in sound, Mirrors on every face and a downtown packin
G A
Hey, I remember when, your show on 1st and Linden
G A D7
Holding up our glasses, "Here's to something we won't forget!"

CHORUS

Bm Em A D7
But tonight I share my page with the dancers still on stage
Bm Em A D7
On the last night of our play, on a night fantastic
Bm Em A D7
But tonight I leave my art for the alley, street, and park
Bm E A
Where the Long Beach faces spark a revelation
